Max. two candidates per country/NF (If the max. number of 8 is not reached, also more from one NF); preference to those from NFs organizing an European event in 2017. National rules in principal alignment with IFSC rules.

Criteria: Please send your application by mail to (edeltraud.haag@alpenverein.de). The application should contain your personal experience and your attitude about judging. This includes a list of your competitions where you have been in a role as judge, but also in other roles (f.e. athlete). A short description about your motivation and your perspective as judge for the future completes your application.

National judge license

Precondition of the course is the knowledge of IFSC and European rules; please send together with your application as reference the rules 2016 of your National Federation. IFSC would like to see the national rules as basis of your experience and knowledge in alignment with IFSC rules.

Trainer: Johannes Altner

Content: rules duties and practical competences as CC Judge competition process and quality of judging in European events

Test:

- * presentation of a special issue
- * test in rules and judge actions
- * Practise on competition, on EYC/EYCH/ECH

Practical work: The practical work is done on a European event (see Calendar 2017); the applicant has to get in touch with the organising federation. IFSC Europe informs the organiser about the need for applicants doing their practise lesson on an European event. The Jury president will give an opinion on the practice done on the relevant event.

Deadline: 19. January 2017
